Mission Statement

The Family Foundation Fund's mission is the restoration of Authentic Fatherhood to build kingdom families.

"Watch therefore, and pray always that you may be counted worthy to escape all these things that will come to pass, and to stand before the Son of Man."

Luke 21:36

What is Ahead for Family Foundation Fund

- We will continue to prioritize being a "house of prayer", seeking the kingdom of the Most-High; consulting, pastoring, writing, teaching, on the Essence of Authentic Fatherhood.
- Farming with multi-generational farm helpers; Providing healthy organic produce for families with limited resources.
- The mentoring program has sunset; we continue to disciple our FFF alumni sons, many are husbands and fathers.
- Helping single parents with tuition support; enabling them to educate their children in academic environments that are Christ-Centered.

We are grateful for your prayers and partnership. Lives have been changed, souls have been redeemed and we will continue to humble ourselves and obey as our Heavenly Father leads the Way!

JULY 2026 UPDATE

On May 12, 2026 Family Foundation Funds former board members, and fiduciary governing board gathered at the Longview Mansion for an evening of remembering. It was a time to come together and remember and express our appreciation for 'Our Father's divine grace and favor over the past 34 years!

Most of us in attendance had been blessed to celebrate seven or more decades of life. Were, Ron & Willi C, Claude B, Joe & Sandra, Harry & Jan J Andy & Barbara S, Vicki B, David M, Bill T, Wayne F, Matthew G, Victor & Vickie W, Jean S, Isaac K, Wayne L, Townes D, Akexa K, Onnie & Margie K, Jamison T, a 2023 FFF graduate, was our photographer. He will enter his senior year at Tuskegee Institute. Matthew Gainous a 2024 FFF graduate, shared his journey as a FFF son, and will be entering his junior year at Harding University.

Many of you have stood faithfully with us since our beginning in 1993. You have prayed. You have prayed. You have prayed. Please continue to pray fervently. You have logged thousands of volunteer hours. You have counseled. You have shared your resources. You have loved! Our united efforts have transformed lives.

Margienell and I started this year in Africa visiting Ghana & Zimbabwe. Our family legacy began on the continent of Africa. Our forefathers were passengers transported during the Trans - Atlantic slave trade one of the major travesties of human history. Which records the African continent being invaded and ravaged by European Imperialist, who plundered its' rich mineral resources and dehumanized its' captured population for economic gain.

We have no record of our original family's history. My paternal grandfather was born in South Carolina, in 1870. Through our ancestry quest we discovered our bloodline originated in West Africa.

Ghana, West Africa, was one of the major slave ports. Through our ancestry search it was pinpointed that our family bloodline originated from the West Coast of Africa.

Over the past several years we have visited Ghana in an effort to reconnect to our forefather's place of origin. Several members of our family were able to experience The Gate Of No Return, Located in Cape Coast Castle. We were also able to visit The last Bath. We stood on the bank of the Assin Manso Ancestral Slave River, one of the most haunting and historically significant landmarks of the trans-Atlantic slave trade. Also known as the "River of No Return," the last two stops on the road into the shackles of slavery as a result of our fore parent's disobedience to Elohiym, the Most High.

We will host a time of celebration on the African continent and the joy of returning home. December 28, 2027 – January 11th 2028. During these 15 days, we invite you the family of the Most High to join us in celebration. Some of you are descendants of slaves brought to this continent. Some of you are descendants of slave owners who colonized and perpetuated this economic travesty. We pray all of us have been redeemed by the blood of Yahusha and have embraced our sonship as children of the Most High. If you are interested in joining us for the celebration in Ghana, West Africa, please call our office at 615-876-7170.

A Brief Revelational Look at the Abrahamic family

The African continent is the most mineral-rich continents in the world, hosting vast reserves of industrial minerals; these minerals are critical to the global economy: oil, gold, natural gas, coal, copper, uranium, rare earth elements (used in high tech industries), timber, iron ore, and lithium.

The Most High commissioned (Abram-Abraham) to the continent of Africa. Genesis 12:1-5, “Now the Lord had said to Abram, get out of your country, from your family and from your father’s house to a land that I will show you. I will make you a great nation; I will bless you and make your name great; and you shall be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and I will curse him who curses you; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.” Yahuah (Jesus) came through the Abrahamic lineage.

So Abram departed as the Lord had spoken to him, and Lot went with him. “And Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. Then Abram took Sarai his wife and Lot his brother’s son, and all their possessions that they had gathered, and the people (servants) whom they had acquired in Haran, and they departed to go to the land of Canaan. So they came to the land of Canaan.”

Canaan was located in Northern Africa. When Canaan experienced a drought. Abram moved to the land of Egypt, which is also North Africa. After leaving Egypt Abram goes to Mamre near Hebron also in North Africa where he is visited by the Most High. There he is circumcised and told that he and Sarah (who was 90 and barren) would have a son.

They have a son, and name him Isaac. Isaac grows up and Abraham secures his son a wife, Rebekah. Isaac and Rebekah have two sons Esau and Jacob. Jacob is deceived into marrying two wives (Rachel and Leah) and their handmaiden (Bilhah and Zilpah) accompany them in the marriage. Jacob father’s 12 sons by these four women (Rueben, Dan, Levi, Asher, Naphtali, Issachar, Gad, Zebulun, Simeon, Judah, Joseph, Benjamin) and a daughter (Dinah). His tribal family increases to seventy souls. During a time of famine they all migrated to Egypt. The Most High also told Abraham his progeny would go into captivity for four hundred years (Genesis 15:13-14).

After the family of (Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob) had been in Egypt several hundred years the Most High sends Moses to bring Abraham’s descendants back to the promised land. Moses was a man of a darker hue; this is verified in Exodus 4: 6-7. That is why when the Most High told him to place his hand in his bosom it turned (white & leprous). When he placed it back into his bosom it returned to its’ original darker hue.

“And the Lord said furthermore unto him, Put now thine hand into thy bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom: and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous as snow. And he said, Put thine hand into thy bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom again; and plucked it out of his bosom, and behold, it was turned again as his other flesh.”

Moses, and his Hebrew brother Aaron, were commissioned to stand before Pharoah and tell him to let the people go, so that they could go and worship the Most High. The Hebrew family had grown to about two million souls. Pharoah, the epitomy of pride and self-will refuses. Yahuah sends ten plagues come upon the land and destroys Egypt...the last plague was death of all the first born of all the Egyptian families.

After this demonstration of the power and authority of the Most High the Hebrew family of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob were set free. Moses led them through the Red Sea, into the wilderness to Mount Sin, where they wondered for forty years. Moses had finished his portion and his time on Earth had come to an end. Joshua was commissioned to take the family across the Jordan into the promise land.

Joshua 1

“Moses My servant is dead. Now therefore, arise, go over this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them—the children of Israel. Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon I have given you, as I said to Moses. From the wilderness and this Lebanon as far as the great river, the River Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and to the Great Sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your territory. No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life; as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not leave you nor forsake you.”

Deuteronomy 28 and Leviticus 11

“Be strong and very courageous, that you may observe to do according to all the law which Moses my servant commanded you; do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may prosper wherever you go.”

The people disobeyed, broke covenant, they did not remove all the idols, they engaged in pagan practices, offerings to idols, called on the names of false gods(Baal, Molech, Ashtaroth) painted and cut their bodies, offered human sacrifices, and ate unclean meat drank blood etc. Their disobedience opened the door to the enslavement and the trans-Atlantic consequences.

The Most High who is always true to his word, permitted the curses of Deuteronomy 28: 15-68, to be activated through the Trans-Atlantic slave trade, upon the Hebrew descendants of Abraham. They would be scattered throughout the world for the economic benefit of imperialist nations: Britian, Spain, France, Denmark, Portugal, Netherlands and United States. Not only were families destroyed but the continent of Africa was divided into colonies of predatory imperialistic nations.

This inhumane travesty was endorsed by the papacy.

“The Doctrine of Discovery originated in the 15th century through a series of Papal Bulls issued by the Roman Catholic Church, including Dum Diversas (1452), Romanus Pontifex (1455), and most notably Inter Caetera (1493) by Pope Alexander VI.

These decrees granted Christian monarchs the right to explore, claim, and exploit lands not under Christian rule, framing such actions as a divine mandate to spread Christianity and convert indigenous populations.

The prince of deception (Satan) had deceived the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob to rebellion against the Most High. The supposed representation of the Christian faith (deceived by Satan) had endorsed the inhumane travesty of slavery!

The land the Most High had blessed and established for Abraham and his descendants were colonized into 54 colonial entities, and a portion of the souls enslaved were Abraham’s descendants.

The following factors verify some of them were his progeny: i.e they spoke Hebrew, observed the sabbath, honored Tribal-patriarchal order, circumcised their male children, ate from a common bowl at mealtime (just as Yahusha & Judas), blew the shofar for solemn and celebratory occasions, honored food laws, had multi-wives like Jacob, and engaged in culturally accepted servitude (Hagar the maid servant of Sarah, and Eleazar the servant of Abraham). Satan morphed servitude into the travesty of slavery.

All the European and African nations that participated in the slave trading industry with abuse, denigration and degradation of the descendants of Abraham have suffered under the curse of Genesis 12:3. Several are under judgement at this present time.

Isaiah 26:9-10

For when the Most High’s judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness. Let favor be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness: in the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the Yahuah.

Mason Broussard

Mason is an honor Graduate from Middletown High School in Middletown, California. Mason is the son of Star Broussard and has lived with his maternal grandmother in the Middletown Community his last two years of high school. While he lived in Tennessee he was an active participant in the Family Foundation Fund mentoring program and was affectionately known as “Big Shorty”.

Mason has committed his life to the Most High and is active in the Christian community of Middletown. His plans are to enroll in Santa Rosa Community College where he will pursue a degree in I.T. We would appreciate your prayers on Mason’s behalf as he continues the journey of life.

Aftermath of Hurricane Melissa in Jamaica

Onnie Kirk, Evelyn Fairweather, David Buntin

This spring we were able to visit the island nation of Jamaica and view the aftermath of Hurricane’s Melissa’s 185 mile per hour winds. All four of the Jamaican Mission churches; located in Duncan, Prospect, Wakefield and Calabar were severely damaged.

We are grateful for our dear sister Evelyn Fairweather’s labor in prayer, and obedience in the aftermath of the hurricane. It was an honor to gather at the Mission House with the leadership team. The pastors, elders, deacons, and church leaders met to break bread, fellowship and pray. All rejoiced at the testimonies of the Most High’s miraculous intervention. The presence of Joy filled the Mission House. The leaders arrived at 6:30 pm and remained until almost 11:00 pm on Tuesday evening and returned for a second ‘helping’ of fellowship on Wednesday evening.

Stoney & Evelyn Fairweather began the ministry of Jamaican Missions in 1984. The fruit of their labor is evident in the hearts of the Jamaican Mission Leaders and their families. In the aftermath of hurricane Melissa, they have joy and determination to overcome and rebuild.
